

"EXPERIENCE"—MAN'S ONLY

The Story of EVERYMAN

Photographs from America's most wonderful play, EXPERIENCE, at Belasco Theater next week. This play is the life of EVERYMAN.

Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress foreshadowed this tragedy of youth, passion, experience, intoxication, downfall, misery and final redemption through mother-love and the influence of a pure-minded girl.

The ablest actors, the most beautiful women, a great play, EX-

PERIENCE, presented by William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, make absolutely vivid on the stage in EXPERIENCE the life story that typifies mankind.

Euripides' Bacchae ran for five hundred years in Athens. Even longer might EXPERIENCE, this great story of human life and temptation, hold the boards with change of costume only in what we call modern civilization. See EXPERIENCE next Monday at the Belasco Theater.

"PASSION!"

"YOUTH" MEETS "PLEASURE."

The Red Halls

"YOUTH" TAKING FIRST

Through this hell, falsely called pleasure, youth gropes its way, sometimes falling, sometimes saved by divine grace.

In this great play EXPERIENCE, with its wonderful scenes, its journey of Youth through life's bitter experience, young men of the United States see life depicted, the grown man sees youth unveiled.

There are in and about Washington tens of thousands of young men and women, in the Government service, in the army, in the navy,

The Story of EXPERIENCE

It is that of the prodigal son of the twentieth century and these are the steps of the journey:

1. Ambition summons Youth from Love and Home.
2. Accompanied by Experience Youth meets Pleasure at the Gates of the City.
3. Pleasure introduces Youth to the people of the Primrose Path.
4. Youth is confounded by Pleasure's bewildering gayeties.

5. In the end Passion and Intoxication fight a bitter duel for Youth.

6. The jaded devotees of the Corridors of Chance breathlessly watch the reckless playing of enthusiastic Youth.

7. Youth stakes his all on a single turn of the wheel and loses.

8. Turned down by Wealth and his false friends, Youth decides to look for work.

9. Youth finds work in the House of Last Resort.
